

Call for Participation

We invite you to join us in 14th International Conference on Artificial Intelligence, Data Mining & Knowledge Management (AIDMK 2026)

This conference brings together researchers, practitioners, and industry experts to explore innovative developments in modern data mining, machine learning, artificial intelligence, and knowledge engineering. The conference aims to foster collaboration between academia and industry, promote cross-disciplinary dialogue, and accelerate progress in building intelligent systems capable of learning, reasoning, and discovering knowledge at scale

Highlights of AIDMK 2026 includes:

- 16th International Conference on Computer Science, Engineering and Applications (CCSEA 2026)
- 15th International Conference on Embedded Systems and Applications (EMSA 2026)
- 15th International Conference on Cloud Computing: Services and Architecture (CLOUD 2026)
- 7th International Conference on Big Data and Machine Learning (BDML 2026)
- 12th International Conference on Signal and Image Processing (SIPRO 2026)
- 7th International Conference on Natural Language Computing and AI (NLCAI 2026)
- 12th International Conference on Networks & Communications (NCOM 2026)
- 15th International Conference on Software Engineering and Applications (SEA 2026)
- 12th International Conference on Artificial Intelligence and Applications (AIFU 2026)
- 7th International Conference on Block chain and Internet of Things Applications (BIoT 2026)
